FACULTY OF HUMANITIES

SCHOOL OF SOCIAL SCIENCES

DEPARTMENT OF PSYCHOLOGY

Senior Lecturer: Psychology

A vacancy exists for a suitably qualified, experienced individual in the above post. The individual will form part of a dynamic team, responsible for undergraduate and postgraduate teaching and supervision in Psychology. The incumbent will form part of the Psychology Department within the School of Social Sciences, Faculty of Humanities.

Requirements for a Senior Lecturer:

- PhD in Psychology
- Registration with the Health Professions Council of South Africa (HPCSA) as a clinical psychologist
- A minimum of three (3) years teaching experience at both undergraduate and postgraduate levels
- A proven record of subsidy generating publications/articles in accredited journals of which at least two (2) published journal articles within the Psychology field.
- A successful completed scholarly postgraduate supervision will be an added advantage.
- Good understanding of collaborative, ethical, innovative and effective leadership style and commitment to higher education standards
- Commitment and capability to promote the department's mission internally as well as towards external University constituencies and stakeholders

Duties/Responsibilities Senior Lecturer:

- Teaching and Learning: Active participation in support of student and staff mentorship programmes, involvement in teaching all modules, design and curriculum development, updating material i.r.o national and international trends, evaluation of lectures, lecturers and course material, maintains discussion class, identifies at risk students and facilitates additional assistance, and undertakes discipline related research
- Research: Supervise Masters and Doctoral students, involvement in research processes, oversee and participate in project teams working on research projects, participation in conferences, and produce articles/books/chapters in books (measurable research outputs) Academic citizenship: Involvement in community engagement, published

• Governance: With a focus on quality assurance, prepare module outlines and study guides, organise module files, deliver to deadlines, records of all academic activities, participate in departmental, school committees.
• Undergo regular performance appraisal assessments.

……..

CLOSING DATE: 11TH DECEMBER 2026

Please submit cover clearly indicating which post you are applying for, a detailed CV with all your names, addresses, contact details and e-mail address and include contact numbers of three (3) referees, certified copies of all qualifications including Matric / Grade 12 Certificate, academic transcripts and a South African ID/ Passport (Not older than six months) should be forwarded to Human Resources Officer, e-mail applications to recruitment6@ul.ac.za.

Telephonic enquiries regarding conditions of service: Ms KP Bopape (Tel 015 268 2857)

It is the applicant's responsibility to have foreign obtained qualifications evaluated by the South African qualifications Authority. Please note that failure to submit the requested documents / information will result in your application not being considered.

The University of Limpopo is an Equal Opportunity Employer. All appointments will be made in accordance with University's Employment Equity Police. Preference for the position of Senior Lecturer, will be given to Males (Africans and Indians) and Females (Africans)

Correspondence will be limited to short-listed candidates only. Applicants who have not been contacted within 30 days of the closing date must consider their application as unsuccessful.

The University reserves the right not to make an appointment.